March 2014

Printmaking, Papermaking and Bookbinding

Printmaking: 1st and 2nd March £58 adult £38 under 18s

Explore printmaking techniques with visiting artist Sarah Keast. Printmaking is a diverse subject with many skills to master, however, learning just a little can go a long way. We will look at linocuts, and monoprinting. Be warned, it can be addictive!

Papermaking: 8th and 9th March £58 adult £38 under 18s

Learn how to make paper with recycled materials and naturally occurring materials. This workshop will introduce you to the techniques and allow you to experiment with making your own unique paper.

Bookbinding: 15th and 16th March £58 adult £38 under 18s

Learn how to assemble your own sketchbooks, journals and notepads with just a few simple tools and materials. You will also have the chance to combine all of the skills of printmaking, papermaking and bookbinding during this weekend, giving you, for example, the opportunity to create a book of prints incorporating hand-made paper.
